

GILL ORNSTEIN has been presentation skills trainer/facilitator for over twenty years. She was a director of SpeakersBank, involving the first model of speaking skill training and competitions between schools in London .

She provides speaking developmental skills, high calibre training/teaching/facilitating in both the private and public sectors, such as Shell UK, Imperial College, Westminster University, the police, youth offenders, children in care and those with Asperger Syndrome and their families.

For eight years Gill was consultant training officer for Victim Support Hertfordshire and Harrow Samaritans for over nine years.

Gill has the pleasure of being a Toastmaster for 10 years (and ex-President twice) of HOD Speakers Club and was runner-up at the Regional Humorous Contest before lockdown.

She a (red-coated) Toastmaster and has given after-dinner speeches and talks to businesses, clubs and societies with audiences of up to 700 people.

Gill doesn't yet know what she wants to be when she grows up!